Biographical / Historical	Paulette St. Ours worked for the University of New England for 46 years. A lifelong resident of Biddeford, Maine, Ms. St. Ours received a BA in Mathematics from St. Joseph's College in 1968, an MA in Mathematics from Boston College in 1970, and an M.S. in Statistics from the University of Southern Maine in 1993. Ms. St. Ours joined the faculty of St. Francis College as an Instructor of Mathematics in September 1970, becoming an Assistant Professor of Mathematics in 1975, and the Mathematics Department Chair in 1994. Throughout the course of her career Ms. St. Ours was actively involved in University governance issues. First as a faculty member and later as the Assistant Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), Acting Dean of CAS, and finally as Associate Dean of CAS. Ms. St. Ours retired in 2016.	box 1 box 2 box 3 box 4 box 5 box 6 box 7 box 8
Arrangement	The Paulette St. Ours records are arranged in 4 series originally created by Ms. St. Ours, Annual Files, Binders, Ephemera, and Publications. The Annual Files series are arranged by Academic Year (running from June 1 – May 31). Within each Academic Year the files are arranged alphabetically by titles created by Ms. Ours. Each of the other series are arranged alphabetically.	box 9 box 10 box 11
Separated Materials	Items removed from this collection include Student Newspapers and University Weekly Newsletters. Each of these has been added to the apropriate collections in the Student Affairs records and Office of Communications records respectively.	box 12 box 13 box 14

Annual Files, 1969 - 2016

Scope and Contents

The Annual Files series consists of 12 cubic feet of records from each Academic Year 1970/71 - 2015/16 arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by folder title within each Academic Year. Each year contains files relating to faculty governance, board of trustees committee minutes, curriculum, new programs, enrollment, university events, directories, space usage, and commencement. Major events covered include the creation of UNE and the Westbrook College and UNE merger.

In each Academic Year Ms. St. Ours created a file titled Miscellaneous. The Miscellaneous files include calendars, commencement ephemera, ephemera and documents relating to various campus events, internal reports, guidelines, policies, procedures, outside organization’s materials, documents and schedules relating to athletics, schedules of courses, directories, presidential inaugurations, and newsletters.
